

NYCDOT's Office of Special Events helps bring some of New York's most memorable events to our City's streets.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This plan was extensively shaped by the Department of Transportation's Deputy and Borough Commissioners and their staffs, and by First Deputy Commissioner Lori Ardito and her chief of staff Sarah Keeville. They deserve special mention and thanks for their considered and thorough suggestions throughout the course of its development:

Joseph Cannisi, Deputy Commissioner, Roadway Repair & Maintenance
Tom Cocola, Staten Island Borough Commissioner
Phil Damashek, General Counsel
James DeSimone, Staten Island Ferry Chief Operations Officer
Margaret Forgione, Manhattan Borough Commissioner
Leon Heyward, Deputy Commissioner, Sidewalks and Inspection Management
Marlene Hochstadt, Deputy Commissioner, Human Resources & Facilities
Joseph Jarrin, Deputy Commissioner, Finance
Maura McCarthy, Queens Borough Commissioner
Constance Moran, Bronx Borough Commissioner
Joseph Palmieri, Brooklyn Borough Commissioner
Henry Perahia, Deputy Commissioner, Bridges
Michael Primeggia, Deputy Commissioner, Traffic Operations
Luis Sanchez, Lower Manhattan Borough Commissioner
Bruce Schaller, Deputy Commissioner, Planning & Sustainability
David Woloch, Deputy Commissioner, External Affairs

DOT's strategic plan team was Corinne LeTourneau, Margaret Newman, Jon Orcutt and Dani Simons.

Thanks are also due to Deputy Mayor Ed Skyler and former Deputy Mayor Dan Doctoroff for their valuable input and advice.

Shelly Poticha and Sam Zimmerman-Bergman of Reconnecting America facilitated a round of workshops with 100 DOT staff members to kick off development of this plan, and developed its early drafts. The DOT staff members attending the sessions during 2007 were:
