Play Week, featuring Zoo Babies

August 21 - 27

11:30 A.M.-4:30 P.M.

Come explore how our animals play this week. What may appear to be just a simple bucket or ball, or a scattering of fruits and vegetables in an exhibit, is actually one of the many ways the Bronx Zoo uses toys, objects, and activities to promote our animals' wellbeing. This week, kids are invited to play like the animals do, as they enjoy a variety of fun games and activities, and a chance to meet our irresistible zoo babies!
