

GREENWICH HOUSE

Dear Parents,

For the past 107 years, Greenwich House has been an important cultural resource in Greenwich Village. If you are interested in after-school activities, I hope you'll take a look at what Greenwich House offers in music and art. If you have a family member who needs help, you may also benefit from our wide range of social service programs. You'll find a complete list of our programs and how to contact them on the reverse side of this letter.

The Greenwich House Music School offers lessons in a wide variety of instruments as well as in voice and dance. Registration for the fall semester is underway now. For more information, visit our website (<http://greenwichhouse.org/programs/arts/music>), call (212) 242-4770 or drop by the school at 46 Barrow Street. Also, don't overlook the Music School's award-winning concert series. And if you love Broadway, the school's June fundraising event brings together top Broadway stars for a night of music and song. The performance supports the school's scholarship program.

The Pottery School at 16 Jones Street provides affordable classes for potters of all ages and skill levels. To register or to learn more about The Pottery, visit our website (<http://greenwichhouse.org/programs/arts/pottery>) or call (212) 242-4106.

This year, The Pottery celebrates its centennial with special exhibits, lectures, events and shows that bring together the most creative potters and ceramic artists from around the world. The first of these centennial exhibitions, "New Amsterdam at 400: A Celebration of Contemporary Dutch Ceramics," begins on September 9. It will be curated by Sarah Archer, Director of The Pottery, and Wanda Wabnitz, founder and CEO of Wabnitz Editions. Join us for an opening reception at The Pottery on Thursday, September 10 from 6-9 P.M.

"A Taste of Greenwich House," our spring fundraiser, features samplings of the fine cuisine found at many outstanding Greenwich Village restaurants. The proceeds from this annual evening event sustain all of Greenwich House's diverse services. Be sure to mark your calendar for March 8, 2010.

As you can see, Greenwich House is a busy place, with a rich variety of programs, performances, exhibitions and activities. We hope you'll take advantage of all we have to offer. Our bulletin board in the lobby of our landmark building at 27 Barrow Street is updated regularly with information about special events and activities. You can also visit our website at <http://greenwichhouse.org> and sign up for email updates.

I hope you have a wonderful year.
