In April 2009, the New York City Taxi and Limousine Commission (TLC) announced a program providing respondents who had received a summons with the ability to have their hearings heard from the TLC's Staten Island facility. Respondents who availed themselves of this option did not have to appear in person at the TLC's Long Island City or Beaver Street facilities for their hearing.

As a result of the transfer of the TLC Court to the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings (OATH), the TLC's Staten Island facility will, effective November 5, 2012, no longer be available for hearings.

Respondents who wish to have their hearings held on Staten Island will need to go to OATH's Taxi Tribunal located at 350 St. Marks Place, Main Floor, Staten Island, NY 10301. OATH's Taxi Tribunal will be open for TLC Respondents from 9AM to 4PM on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays (excluding holidays). OATH's Taxi Tribunal will not be open to the public on Wednesdays.

For additional information you may contact OATH directly at: 718-391-5718

In addition, summons payments will no longer be taken at our Staten Island facility. Summons payments can be made in person at TLC's 33 Beaver Street or Long Island City offices or can be mailed to the TLC at the following address:
